4modIA 2022-2023

Assessment Grid - Scientific Poster Presentation

Name:

	Extraordinary 10	Very good 8	Good 7	Satisfactory 6	Needs to improve 5	Poor 4
Presentation Skills /5: Voice Gestures/body language Eye contact

	Extraordinary 10	Very good 8	Good 7	Satisfactory 6	Needs to improve 5	Poor 4
Content + Structure /5: Intro Transitions + Signposting Clear story Relevant content Conclusion

	Extraordinary 10	Very good 8	Good 7	Satisfactory 6	Needs to improve 5	Poor 4
English /10: Structure/syntax Grammar Vocabulary Pronunciation

Final Grade /20:

Correction guidelines/student checklist

PRESENTATION SKILLS /5

Voice

      Has fluid rhythm and debit

      Is dynamic and confident

      Has no or limited hesitations (euh, euh…)

      Articulates clearly and can be heard by everyone

Body Language

      Uses calm natural gestures

      Avoids nervous movement (hands, feet, barriers, etc.)

Eye contact

      Looks at all audience members

      Has no or limited use of notes/no reading

      Avoids looking at poster all the time

CONTENT + STRUCTURE /5

Introduction

      Introduces themselves

      Presents context, objectives and any specifications

      Grabs audience's attention

Conclusion

      A clear conclusion and take-home message

      Thank the audience and ask for questions

Transitions

      Uses clear and appropriate transitions between parts of presentation

      Uses signposting language

Clear Story and relevant content

      Informative content; not too detailed or vague.

      A clear 'story' to the presentation; sections presented in a logical order with a clear connection between sections (results and conclusion replies to aim)

ENGLISH /10

Structure/Syntax

      Uses correct and appropriate English structure and syntax

Grammar

      Maintains grammatical control and communicates in appropriate scientific English which is understandable to both specialists and non-specialists

Vocabulary

      Shows knowledge and correct use of specialized vocabulary both in the field and pertaining to the project

Pronunciation

Demonstrates correct English pronunciation especially of scientific terms in field and pertaining to project